President's Message

April & May 2025

Volume LXXXVIII. Issue 6 & 7

THIS EDITION of the PQ is a special edition covering 2 (TWO) months: April and May, due to vacation time of our editors. Auction lists for BOTH auctions are in this edition.

I am in Florida on vacation, life is good. I thought that the Cape Coral post office would have some different stamps available, wrong!! I had a letter that needed to be mailed, we could not find a mail box. Google said a post offices was five minutes away, 20 minutes later we were at the post office, mission complete. Next concern, rumor has it that the US Postal Service was going to be eliminated and services would be taken over by private companies. What am I going to do with all these damaged postage stamps. I guess I will be sending out a lot more Christmas cards. Will Fed X or UPS have their own stamps? Just saying.

Forever Stamps, Larry Jones, President QC Stamp Club

March 20 Meeting Report

There were 13 members including two visitors (Brenda and Ryan Cassini) that joined the club and paid their dues. Welcome!!!

We were happy to have Susie back with her display of stamps . Dan Doss also brought stamps.

The name tag raffle was won by Jim Wynes and the first sheet of mint stamps was won by Paul Roberts. The second sheet after a relay from Leen to Dan Doss finally arrived at Brenda :)

Larry forgot to bring copy of financials , will catch up this month.

All the positions for the board were filled, voted on and accepted.

Still working on date for Stamp Fair, depending on availability of vendors. Target date will be anywhere from August to October. We hope to inform you better during our April meeting

Auction raised $192 which 10% goes to club.

Had a short board meeting, everything is good, it's great that we have added some new members lately.

Please continue to supply lots for future auctions.

An urgent request:

If we want to be able to continue our 35 lot monthly auctions, we will still need more lots!

Every member can offer up such lots. All that is needed is to fill out a lot-form and hand the lot with this form attached before the start of the meeting to Linda or Leen. They will then make sure that those lots will be entered for future auctions. The lot needs to have a minimum estimated or CV value of $ 10.00. Also note that for individual stamps an honest description of the stamp(s) and any flaws needs to be part of the lot description entered on the form provided with the stamp(s)

The club receives 10 % of sales values.

Checks are typically sent out to sellers after every 2 months.
