... And a Partridge in a Pear Tree

You may be able to guess what the topic for our December program is from that title, but in case you can't, here are a few clues:

This country's traditions are often depicted on it's stamps. We borrow much from those traditions. More than one "Christmas Carol" has come our way from them. The subject covers more Christmas issues than just stamps.

Anglophiles and philatelists should find the evenings presentation of interest.

Your Secretary-Treasurer thanks all those who have paid their 1983 dues. For those who haven't yet, he loves to get mail and would welcome your payment by that means. All the stamps used to mail dues to him are given to the penny box so commemoratives are especially appreciated. Dues may also be paid at the December 9th meeting. They are due by December 31st.

George Holmes is resting at home after recent heart surgery. He appreciates those who sent him a card and reports he will attend our Club meetings as soon as possible.

One thing you never have to worry about with winter weather: Quad-City Stamp Club meetings are always "on". No matter how much white stuff decides to fall on the Second Thursday, the Club will meet. You decide "weather" to come or not.

Your new editor goofed real big the first time out - - The photo on page 1 of last month's PHILA-QUAD lacked identification of two members of the group. The write-up under the photo should have read: "The Postal Customers Conference held October 12th was a big success. The large attendance included four QCSC members, among them Kurt Kurhnhacki and Richard Farrar. Postmaster General William F. Bolger was the featured speaker. He is shown in this photo with the other two QCSC members. From the left: Rock Island Postmaster John Bromley, PMG Bolger, Cedar Rapids Postmaster Robert Hart, Steve Bahnsen, and Dale Cady. Seated in front is John Knopp, Gateway District Manager of the Postal Service." (Photo by East Moline Postmaster, Lee Carroll.)

We extend our sympathy to the family of Wilbert Sindt who passed away November 12th. Wilbert was a long time member of our Club, with membership number 250. His presence will be missed at the meetings.
