CANCER AUCTION MARCH 27TH

This spring's big philatelic event is coming up quickly and, as with all events, it needs your support to be a success. We speak of the Sixth Annual Benefit Auction for the American Cancer Society. Sunday, March 27th is the date, and Jumer's Castle Lodge in Bettendorf is the place.

We solicit any type of stamp or other philatelic material you no longer have any need for. It will be auctioned off to the highest bidder, with the proceeds being split between Scott and Rock Island County Chapters of the American Cancer Society.

Your material to be auctioned off may be left at the River City Stamps table at our February 10th or March 10th meeting. Or if your going to be in Bettendorf, drop it off at River City Stamps, 1630 State Street anytime. Dick and Jane will be glad to see you.

- Notes on the 1982 Treasurer's Report -

1. We did not get a bill for printing 3 months of the PHILA-QUAD in 1981 until 1982. The expense shown is for 13 issues, not the usual 10 a year.

2. At our 1979 QUAPEX, we obtained a display from the United Nations Postal Administration. This was not returned to them after the show (as we should have done). Their display was returned in 1982 at club expense.
