DUBUQUE STAMP SHOW - MAY 21st & 22nd

If you are looking for an excuse to go to Dubuque, by all means plan to go north the weekend of May 21 and 22. The city of Dubuque is 150 years old in 1983. In conjunction with their celebration 'Dubuque Fest', the Dubuque Stamp Club is planning a top notch stamp show and bourse.

Location of this event is the Five Flags Civic Center, Fourth and Locust Streets in down-town Dubuque. Show hours at 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM both Saturday and Sunday. Well over a hundred frames of exhibits will be on display along with over a dozen stamp dealers. The Postal Service is going to have an excellent station at the show with all the current stamps available as well as a special postmark.

Since Dubuque was the site of the first post office in Iowa in 1833, the Iowa Postal History Society will have a meeting and auction Saturday at 2:00 PM at the show. Anyone may attend.

Join the crowds at Dubuque Fest and enjoy yourself at the show.

WHITE ELEPHANT AUCTION

Every June we have this special annual event to raise funds to pay the next years rent. All items are donated and we encourage everyone to participate. Clean out all of those 'nifty' philatelic gadgets you thought would be just the thing - but weren't. Changed your mind about collecting a certain subject or country? Bring those items to George Wolters at the May meeting.

Late word from the Stamp Dock at the Rock Island Post Office indicates the last of the 50 State Birds & Flowers stamps have been sold. It is doubtful that any more of these colorful stamps will be available from this source.

Dates have been announced for an always popular down-state stamp show. CORNPEX '83 will be held in Bloomington, Illinois, October 29th and 30th.
