QCSC Bus Trip to AMERIPEX '86

The deadline for deposits for the bus trip is the night of our monthly meeting, Feb. 13th. The deposit will be refunded if the trip does not materialize. The date is Saturday, May 24th. Times will be announced later. The cost of $20 @ was said to include the trip and ticket, but... It was announced at the January meeting that the cover from the Stamp Collecting USA/AMERIPEX '86 booklet may be used in place of a one day pass. It gives you immediate admission, no waiting in line for a ticket. You may give them a booklet cover for every day you attend. (This explanation comes from p. 7 of the Feb. 3rd issue of Linn's.) Our bus will accommodate 47. At the moment we have under 20. We need 30 to make the trip feasible. Come join us.

January Meeting

Was it the January thaw or cabin fever? Whatever it was, it brought 67 people to the January meeting. Jack Leiby and his two young boys must be happy they came. Charles Patterson bought raffle tickets and gave some to each boy and, of course, one of them won the raffle.

We had a program by Virginia Lorimor and Bob Ahlstrom on their trip to the First Day of Issue ceremony for the Mark Twain/Halley's Comet aerogramme. They brought back a few cancelled one to sell along with the many they had to show us. They told us how the woman in charge had instructed the boys and girls serving as ushers not to let people in more than once -- that is give out only one program to each person. But wouldn't you know it, Bob and Virginia seemed to have at least half a dozen each.

NINTH ANNUAL CANCER AUCTION

Have you looked over your stock and duplicates yet to see if you will have something to donate to the Cancer Auction? Please bring your donations to the February or March meeting. As always, the sooner the better! It is a big job and there is a lot to do those last two weeks after the March meeting. Bring them to us and we will see that they get to Dick Castner.

The auction is again at Jumer's Castle Lodge, Bettendorf, Iowa. The day is Sunday, April 6th. The time for the auction to begin is 1:00 p.m. Lots will be on view beginning at noon.

Butch Lea reports that 200 lots are in already which is good news. Maybe we can make this year's auction bigger and better than ever.

From the Secretary-Treasurer

A large supply of our Club's membership directories still exists. These were first made available at our Golden Anniversary dinner October 10, 1986. If you did not get one, they will be available during our next meeting at the head table. Copies will be mailed to those unable to attend the meeting.

We also have a limited supply of both the 1977 and 1981 directories if anyone would want one. The Constitution and By-Laws are also yours for the asking. sjb

* JUNIORS *

The 50th Anniversary contest is history. The winners were:
High School: Brian Hayes, Junior High: Denise Laughlin, and Grade School: Mike Hayes. All entries will be exhibited in the main post office in Davenport.

Starting in February we will be awarding "stamp points" which can be saved for a big junior auction to be held in December. Stamp points, the only money juniors can use in the December auction, may be collected in many ways, such as:
attendance at meetings, doing trivia quizzes, designing stamps, showing us your collection, making up games for others to do,
bringing in news articles about stamps.

We thank those who have already donated the following for the auction. We are grateful for your quality donations.
United States issues 73, C7, C8, C9, C20, C21, C22, C31, C46, and 2 1980 commemorative sets.
