

Volume LI, No. 10

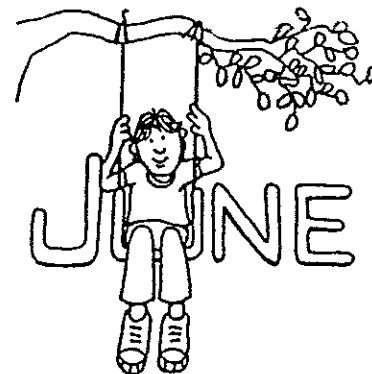

June 1989

NEXT MEETING: Thurs., June 8th

PLACE: Moline Township Hall
620 18th Street
Moline, Illinois

TIME: Business meeting at 8 p.m.

BOURSE: 7 to 10 p.m.

PROGRAM: Trivia Quiz

This month's program will be a quiz of 20 questions about something you should know a little about - stamp collecting. Just pretend this is Jeopardy and there is money on the line.

There is also a special quiz for our Juniors with a prize of 28 mint U.S. stamps to go to the winner. We missed all of you last month. Be sure to come this month and try your hand at the quiz.

Even if, as usual, we find we are not all as smart as we thought we were, we will still have a good time. Come join us at the June meeting.

Dear Friends,

End of another volume... And as usual the Editor breathes a long sigh of relief and prepares for a summer respite. Some months the job is a breeze and others are not. But every month it is good to see a nice looking finished copy coming through in the mail. It is still rewarding work and I hope you feel it is worth the time spent and is a useful tool to you and your hobby.

You will receive a postal card reminder in July and August in place of your newsletter. Please be aware that the deadline for September is, as always, on p. 6.

Susan Hayes, Editor

The motion was made by Bob Ahlstrom and seconded by Kurt Kuhenhackl to make the nominated slate the elected slate. Motion carried.

There was much discussion at the May business meeting about the problem of lack of attendance at the Board meetings. Two meetings have had to be canceled because of no quorum. We considered another member as an alternate, but that will require some time to consider. The Board is taking the matter under advisement.

We thank those people who have consented to serve us for the next twelve months. We are sure they'll provide us with excellent leadership. Keep the list at the left; tell them your ideas for the QCSC.

Deaths

Two of our members have recently died. Former member Arthur Appelquist died several months ago at his home in Arizona. Roy Ervin, of Davenport died just two weeks ago. His wife writes that he had been ill in the hospital for about three weeks. Memorials were sent by the Club for each of the families to disburse.
