SEPTEMBER PROGRAM(S)

Last month, courtesy of Les Winick, we viewed part of the APS feature The Video Guide to Stamp Collecting BY Gary Burghoff. This month we will see the conclusion of this tape as well as watch Wildlife, Wetlands and You!- The Duck Stamp Story from the U.S. Department of the Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service. We wish also to thank Ray Anderson TV for supplying us with the equipment to present these programs. Our thanks to Jim Mehrer.

QCSC FALL BOURSE

The date of our next bourse is scheduled for October 22nd at St. Ambrose University. This is Sunday from 10 to 5 p.m. Room 131 of the Galvin Fine Arts Center.

Admission is free and we will be giving away door prizes for the first time. Additional advertizing measures are being taken. This is Stamp Collecting Month in October. Take advantage of the opportunity to spread the word. It is up to we collectors to let everyone know we are here as a Club trying to serve them in their hobby.

We have someone to man the information table so we will not be needing volunteers, but I am sure he would appreciate another hand or two to greet our visitors. Stop by and help make everyone welcome.

QCSC ANNUAL WHITE ELEPHANT AUCTION

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12TH

Your donations are needed for our annual White Elephant Auction. All material for this event is donated by the members and the money raised is used to pay the meeting room rent for the year.*

It is also one of the fun times we have where many bargains are to be found. Stock up now on stamps to soak and sort for the long winter months ahead. Basically the material donated is philatelic in nature, or at least remotely so. We have had filing units and old typewriters and even ash trays.

The most important point to mention is that we really do need donations. George Wolters, Auction Manager, reports that he had very few lots come in this summer and that were the auction held now it would be shorter than a regular monthly auction.

Please take the time before the meeting to locate some duplicates or unneeded albums and stamps to donate. We really do need your support in this.

We need your donations by the September meeting if at all possible so that they can be listed in the next newsletter. If you cannot bring them, but have donations, contact George to make arrangements. You can bring them as late as the day of the auction if absolutely necessary.

PLEASE SUPPORT THE CLUB WITH YOUR DONATIONS TO THE AUCTION

NEXT MONTH: A feature article by Virginia Lorimor telling of her experiences at events honoring the designer of the 1989 Duck stamp.
